

WHEN WE SPEAK

A trio of whistleblowers, share their motivations, experiences and fallout of their own cases.

British intelligence employee Katharine Gun, Oxfam aid worker Helen Evans and Hollywood actress Rose McGowen open the lid on what happens to women in When We Speak.

When We Speak was filmed over two years, following three incredible stories of women who risked everything, to tell the truth.

Whistleblowers rarely understand the impact telling the truth will have on their own lives. When We Speak tells the story of women at the centre of high-profile exposés, revealing what drove them to speak. Their stories became worldwide scandals that took a personal toll on each of them.
