

19-2

A richly-nuanced character-driven drama, 19-2 revolves around the lives of two unwilling partners in the Montreal Police Department.

Officers Nick Barron and Ben Chartier patrol the urban sprawl of downtown's 19th Precinct in Cruiser No. 2. The series portrays the unpredictability and fragility of the world of a beat cop through moments of life-threatening intensity, both on and off duty, cementing 19-2 as a powerful character study and a gripping police drama.

"The writing is sublime, turning each episode into a sort of tone poem, a slice of urban and police life carefully observed" - THE NEW YORK TIMES

"A gripping (and often heart-breaking) social commentary." - TORONTO STAR

"Rises to the level of the very best of TV drama." - THE GLOBE AND MAIL

"You will be on the edge of your seats, guaranteed." HUFFINGTON POST
